

INTIMATION OF CANCELATION OF THE INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE - ICSCRUD 2020

In the view of the Corona Virus (COVID-19) epidemic precautions measures, the International Conference on “Sustainable Computing for Rural and Urban Development (ICSCRUD 2020) which will be scheduled on March 27 & 28, 2020, has been canceled. On behalf of the management of our SRMIST and the department of Computer Science and Engineering, I thank all the authors, faculty members, and dear students who have meticulously shown their interest in submitting their research work/papers for this conference. The authors who had already paid their registration amount will be refunded as early as possible. Once again thanks for your cooperation.

With regards,

Dr. C. VIJAYAKUMARAN,

ORGANIZING SECRETARY - ICSCRUD2020
