Dear Members, Friends and Colleagues,

I am indeed privileged and delighted to host OTIOCN 2016 the 53rd national Conference of All India Occupational Therapists Association "In SRM College of occupational therapy, SRM University, Chennai, the most vibrant city of India.

I express our sincere thanks to the office bearers of AIOTA for giving me an opportunity to host this conference and also to the management of SRM University for agreeing upon to organize the most challenging scientific event. Such a herculean task would not have been possible without the voyage traveled together by the organizing committee members, National and International Therapists who have traveled far distance for their participation & young students and researchers.

The conference program has been planned to deliver the most recent advancement in Occupational therapy by eminent speakers across the globe that can benefit to the country and community with the theme of "Innovations in occupational Therapy: Key towards excellence". Keeping this in view, we have planned hands-on and interactive workshops and lectures by the eminent international and national faculties. I hope that all of you will enjoy the academic feast, warm hospitality of Tamil Nadu, rich heritage of the region and culture.

This is the great occasion for all of us to have an opportunity to interact with the leading Therapists from across the globe and to bridge the collaborative efforts for solving many of the mysterious health problems of human life. Let us join our hands together to share our knowledge and experience that will go a very long way in helping to build up the healthy, prosperous and developed nation.

Let us start with imparting knowledge of wisdom that leads to the eternal peace.
