Thailand is a Southeast Asian country. It's known for tropical beaches, opulent royal palaces, ancient ruins and ornate temples displaying figures of Buddha. In Bangkok, the capital, an ultramodern cityscape rises next to quiet canalside communities and the iconic temples of Wat Arun, Wat Pho and the Emerald Buddha Temple (Wat Phra Kaew). Nearby beach resorts include bustling Pattaya and fashionable Hua Hin.

What is Thailand famous for? Thailand is world-famous for its spa massages, beaches, Buddhist temples, nightlife, and, of course, shopping.

Why Thailand is famous in the world? With epic tropical beauty, ancient temples, amazing food scene and vibrant nightlife, Thailand truly has a chaotic charm to it that attracts people from across the globe. The country, also referred to as the Land of Smiles, never disappoints. The Bangkok district is home to more than 20 go-go bars, nightclubs and bars, allowing visitors to enjoy the best nightlife in Thailand. When you are in Patpong, you will never be short of the options to choose from and experience Bangkok's unique nightlife in its full glory.
