CENTRE FOR BIOTECHNOLOGY

Centre for Biotechnology was established in 1984 right after the global emergence of the new genetic engineering technologies globally. As a forerunner in Biotechnology education and research, it is aptly established in a premier technical university supporting multidisciplinary growth in diverse area of bioscience. Globally such institutions were only a few in the 1980s and today it is a preferred destination for Quality Biotech education in the country.

This centre has a unique commitment to educating a broad spectrum of students- including Undergraduate, Post-graduate and Research scholars. The various courses offered by this Department are Biotechnology, Computational Biology, Food Technology, Bio-Pharmaceutical Technology.

AVIDADHAM 2019

Avidadham, (meaning process of drug making) is an International conference organised every year since 2013 by the post graduate students of the Department of Biotechnology, Anna University, Chennai. The conference provides an excellent platform for students, researchers, faculties, scientists and industrialists to congregate and interact. Participants not only get to meet eminent scientists and industrialists but also get a chance to present their ideas and research in the form of poster and oral presentations.
