Dear Colleagues from the Psychology Sectorial Conference.

My best wishes for 2018! I am writing to update you on the VI International Psychology Congress of FICUP.

I am pleased to announce the CALL FOR PAPERS to the VI Congress to be held 3-6 October, 2018 in Bangalore, India hosted by Professor Tony Sam George (director) at Christ University.

The conference theme is— Eastern and Western Psychology: Singularity, Diversity and Integration. Kindly visit the congress website for additional information—

Please sure to copy and paste the entire link above as written.

As you may recall, during the general assembly in Los Angeles in 2015, Christ University in Bengaluru, India was selected as the venue for our next congress. After a delay, we affirm that the planning for the VI Congress continues by the team in Bangalore led by Professor Sam George.

Please also find enclosed a letter about the 2018 dues which are due now. We are including an attachment with information on membership renewal along with instructions on making payment arrangements. We appreciate your support in ensuring that the payment request is processed by your university in a timely fashion.

At our next general assembly to take place at the conclusion of the VI congress in India, a vote by the members of the psychology sectorial group will be held in order to elect the next members of the executive committee. If a member wishes to be considered, that person should inform their regional representative of their intention to join the executive board. In order to be eligible for election, they must be present at the general assembly per our bylaws and the sectorial group membership dues for their respective university must be paid and current.

We look forward to seeing you in Bangalore in October!

Best wishes,

Ricardo Arturo Machón, Ph.D.
